NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

As with any tax increase, there seems to be a great deal of confusion, misunderstanding and some bitterness arising out of the School District's re-evaluation program. Since rural landowners are the ones to take the brunt of the increase in this program they are naturally the ones that are having the most problems with it.

This is quite understandable since they are being asked to pay from two to four times as much in taxes as they have in the past. It is indeed unfortunate that anyone should have their taxes increased by this much at one time but it comes about because traditionally landowners have never paid their fair share of taxes and the day of reckoning has arrived.

It is also unfortunate that the re-evaluation program should fall on one of the poorer crop years, but this is unavoidable.

The biggest fuss that you hear is that the farming situation is such that the land will not pay this amount of taxes. It seems to us that the biggest misunderstanding is the whole conception of ad valorem taxes.

Property taxes have never been based on the ability to pay but rather are a tax on the right to own property. If this were just a tax on the ability to pay then there would be no tax on a person's home since this property has no way of paying its own tax bill.

Under our system of ad valorem taxes you lose the right to own property if you cannot afford to pay the taxes. We are not sure that this is the way that it should be, but must face the fact that this is the way it will be until the public provides some other source of revenue for our counties, schools and cities — such as a sales tax or an income tax.

City property owners and the oil industry for years have been paying the lion's share of the costs for schools and other agencies. This is gradually being changed across the state with the Hamlin district being only one of the many districts to bring up their rural land to the point where it conforms with other property in the districts.

In fairness, maybe the school district should have started this a number of years ago and brought up the values year by year until they were equal but we doubt that this would have been acceptable either.

While the tax load keeps getting heavier we can still be thankful that it is lighter here than in many places where they not only have county, school and city taxes but also have water districts, hospital districts and junior college districts to support.

For the benefit of those who are wondering how their values were set, the district hired a firm to appraise all of the land in the district at its true value and then 35 percent of this was taken for its tax value. The new tax rate has tentatively been set at $1.82 per hundred. This means that a piece of property that is valued at $10,000 would have a tax value of $3,500 and would carry a tax of $63.70.

We would very much like to endorse a thought that Supt. Cook expressed last week when he urged all taxpayers to remember that the board of equalization members are just local citizens who have accepted a very disagreeable task because someone in the district had to, and therefore should be treated with the respect due ones fellow citizen. They should not be abused just because one feels that his taxes are too high.

All that these men can do is try to eliminate injustices and try their best to see that all are treated equally. They cannot lower one person's taxes just because the taxpayer thinks it is too high, as long as it is in line with everyone else's in the district.

We are sure that many think that the school should find some way to operate on less money but we are also sure that the school board would like to find a way to do this too, for they too must pay these same high taxes. But it seems obvious that the costs of operating our schools will continue to increase rather than get lower.

Football Drills To Start Aug. 9

Football workouts for the Pied Pipers will start here Wednesday, Aug. 9, for all sophomores, juniors and seniors, according to Youngblood, head football coach. The boys will report to the fieldhouse at 9 a.m. and be issued their football shoes.

The boys will work out once a day in shorts and then will start two-a-day workouts the following Monday at 8 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. Freshmen will report for workouts on Monday, Aug. 21, at 8 a.m.

Coach Youngblood said this week that he is expecting about 60 boys to be out for football this fall and will have ten returning lettermen back with four starters on defense and four on offense.

The Pipers will have two pre-season scrimmages with the dates still to be set for both. They will scrimmage Monday here and Seagraves on a neutral site.

The Pipers will open up their season play with Rotan on Sept. 8 on the Yellowhammer field. They will host Nolan of Fort Worth on the following Saturday which will also be their Homecoming game. They travel to Cisco, host Tahoka and close out their non-conference schedule at Clyde.

The first conference game will be with Colorado City on the Wolves' gridiron. This will be followed by a game here with Winters and then a game at Haskell. The final two games will be here with Anson and Stamford.

The B Team will open their season at Roby on Sept. 9 and the Freshmen will host Coahoma here Sept. 14.

Lt. Bunyan Payne Reported Safe On USS Forrestal

Word was received here Tuesday morning by Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Payne that their son, Lt. Bunyan Payne, aboard the USS Forrestal in the Gulf of Tonkin, was safe. A fire on the third largest carrier started after a fuel tank dropped from an A4E Skyhawk and spread to planes, bombs, rockets and fuel tanks.

He called his wife, who is living in Garland, early Tuesday morning after the damaged carrier reached Subic Bay in the Philippines.

Mrs. Payne then called the lieutenant's parents here. Mrs. Payne is the former Verna Mae Sipe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Sipe. The couple has three children, Linda, Paul and John.

Lt. Payne has been in the U. S. Navy for 27 years and has been assigned to the USS Forrestal since June 6 of this year. He is a squadron electronics officer.

Mmes. Ruth Parker, Opal Smith and Leone Brown returned home Friday after vacationing in South Texas and Louisiana. Part of the time was spent at Rockport with Mrs. Brown's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Green, in their cabin on Copano Bay. Other points of interest were a ball game in the Astrodome in Houston, and tours of New Orleans, Hodges Gardens in Many, La., and the rose gardens in Tyler.

After selection by the district, nominations are forwarded to the areas where committees of teachers make the final selection of the newspapers to receive the state Distinguished Service Award.

Burglars Hit Hastings Texaco Thursday Night

Hastings Texaco Station was hit again by thieves Thursday. Lee Hastings, owner, discovered the break-in when he opened for business Thursday morning.

Entry was gained through a window broken in the back of the building.

Taken from the station were $50 worth of tools that Hastings had received for Father's Day and a new quarter-inch drill.

Monday Hastings said, "Tell them (the burglar or burglars) that the front panel in the wash rack is loose and they can get in that way. I am tired of replacing the broken glass."

Milburn Wink, Student Council advisor for Hamlin High School, carried Mike Young, Gil Lain, Peggy Jones and Beth Craig to Houston Sunday for the Leadership Training Workshop on the campus of the University of Houston. They will return Friday.

Money Sought For Cemetery Cleanup Work

The unusually heavy rainfall during July has caused a tremendous increase in the growth of grass and weeds which makes it necessary for the Hamlin Cemetery Association to ask for more help in cleaning the East Cemetery. This cleaning is done every year and money is needed in order to clean all graves. The Association has been unable to contact anyone, especially those concerned with the old section of East Cemetery.

Donations to be used in the clean-up should be sent to the Association, Box 494, Hamlin, Texas 79520.

Miss Lennie Greenway, secretary-treasurer, said that all help on this project would be appreciated.

County Agent Kirby Clayton Named To Receive Top Association Award

COLLEGE STATION, . . . Kirby W. Clayton, Jones County agricultural agent since 1958, was named today to receive the highest honor given by the National County Agricultural Agents Association, their Distinguished Service Award for 1967.

Clayton was nominated by the Texas Agricultural Agents Association and confirmation by the national organization was announced by Todd W. Berry, Van Zandt County agent and chairman of the Texas Awards Committee.

Berry said the award is made annually to a group of county agents throughout the country who have over ten years or more, made outstanding contributions to agriculture and improved rural living. The seven Texas winners will receive their awards at the National Association meeting in Omaha, Neb., Sept. 17-21.

Clayton was cited by the association "For outstanding leadership in developing programs in production agriculture and supporting aids and organizations which have increased farm and ranch income in the county. Also for the supervision of a strong 4-H program and for work done through the county program building committee."

He began his career with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in 1948 as assistant county agent in Haskell County. He moved in two months from assistant to county agent in Kent County and in 1952 was named county agent for Cottle and King Counties. In 1958 he was transferred to Jones County.

Clayton has been active in Jones County agricultural work. He helped organize the Jones County Fair and serves as its secretary. He was active in working out the financing for the new County Show Barn and helps every year with the Jones County Livestock Show. He has supervised the work of many district 4-H winners and has coached at least three state winning judging or demonstration teams.

Farmers in Jones County gain valuable information from the annually published Jones County Result Demonstration Handbook, which gives the latest information on the use of fertilizers, insecticides, herbicides and livestock production practices on a local basis. Clayton's latest contribution to the county farmers was a series of production guidelines on all crops and livestock. He works closely with the county program building committee in carrying out planned programs.

Clayton received a citation from the state for his work in promoting the screwworm and the brucellosis programs. Because of these programs, Jones County is virtually brucellosis free and screwworm infestations are extremely rare.

He is a native of Erath County and attended John Tarleton College in Stephenville before serving in the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers in World War II. He then attended Texas A&M University where he received B. S. and M. S. degrees in agricultural education.

Clayton and his wife have two children and live in Anson where he is active in the First Baptist Church and other civic groups. He is a director in the Texas Association and a member of both state and national association committees.

Distribution of surplus com-

this department. In two years,
45,000,000 pounds of flour,
19,000,000 pounds of corn meal and 17,000,000 pounds of dry milk were distributed to needy families from federal surpluses. However, the amount distributed is declining as the government stockpiles are used up and high employment is reducing the number of needy families.

HIGHER RATES AUTHO-RIZED — Texas Railroad Commission has authorized higher rates for shipments of household goods by specialized carriers. No increase was allowed in packing charges, which had been requested by the van lines.

Rate changes, based on averages of 7,600 shipments come to 17.3 per cent higher than present rates.

However, larger shipments are actually less and smaller shipments are more.

New rates will take effect on August 5.

The Carpenter's FRIEND

To build...one must have plans, and plans give exact measurements. The carpenter who makes careful measurements finds that the work is made easier. Careful measuring prevents waste...waste of time and materials. Therefore the measuring device is truly a friend to the carpenter.

The church wants to be your friend, and help you to a easier and better way of life. The Bible clearly gives us a way to measure life. Through many centuries man has found no better rules than those given in the Bible.

Attend church and receive the friendly welcome that awaits you.

LETTER TO EDITOR—

McMurry Band Director Writes In Praise of Local Band Students

July 28, 1967
Editor
Hamlin Herald
Hamlin, Texas
Dear Sir:
Last week and the week preceding on the McMurry College campus, it was our pleasure to be host to some 400 young musicians on the occasion of the 20th annual McMurry Band and twirling school. A good group came from your town along with students from 72 other towns and cities of our Southwest.

After dealing with these young people and noting the seriousness of purpose they have and the fine self discipline they manifest, I want to say to your school and your community, if these are samples, you can well be proud of your youth.

So much emphasis is placed on the delinquent, the derelicts, the protestors, etc., (certainly I know there are many of these) it was refreshing to me as an educator and band director of many years to work with so ambitious and so cooperative a group. The excellent behavior pattern of these band students is not accidental. I hope and believe we on the McMurry campus nurtured the attitudes for right of these students but I know that these attitudes have been instilled in your community by concerned parents, by the stabilizing influence of church and by schools with teachers who care.

Specifically I believe much of the credit for the excellence of your young people who came to us is due to the discipline of band. Behind this is a band teacher who teaches respect for the law (rules of conduct in playing or marching or on trips are the foundation of legal laws) and engenders pride of the band organization which may carry over to the larger loyalties to home, church, community and finally the nation. I commend you for having provided your band program (and other commensurate worthwhile outlets for the energy of our young people) and believe such programs properly taught are worth far more than they cost and are the vehicles whereby our generation can perpetuate the democratic society which is our United States of America.

Certainly all who came to us were not perfect and neither are we who teach and direct. Certainly, we had some problems but these too were so few and so minor and preponderately the majority of those who learned with us were so fine the twenty great teachers who composed our faculty experienced a renewed confidence in the present and buoyant hope for the future. These youths were an oasis in the desert of unrest. We thank you for having sent them to us and hope that ALL who read this will continue and even augment our efforts to the end that the coming generations of our children will be decent, law abiding and God-fearing. Our school bands can make great contributions in more areas than music.

Sincerely,
Dr. Raymond T. Bynum,
Professor of Instrumental Music, Band Director,
McMurry College, Abilene, Texas

P. S. Mr. Tim Jones is a splendid teacher and an asset to any faculty!

Neinda Philosopher Gets His Mind Off of Riots And Onto the Weather, With Small Success

acts to some weather experts, his letter this week reveals. Dear editor:

Some practical joker in town, apparently having read in The Herald last week that I wasn't in the market for tin cans and bottles wrapped in a newspaper and thrown in a ditch by the road near my Johnson grass farm out here, has now left a batch of tin cans and bottles in the same place, with a rolled-up page of a newspaper stuck in each one. He didn't get the point.

Anyway, I pulled the pages out one by one and put them together and found I had a complete newspaper except for the front page, which didn't matter as one day's riots seem like another's. There are times when the most predicatable thing in a paper is the front page.

Speaking of predicting, I found on page 14 of the can-and-bottle-delivered paper (by the way, if the joker who did this will let me know his name, I have a few items I'll be glad to deposit on his front lawn in town to maintain a balance of trade) an item about the weather.

According to it, the odd weather we've had this summer such as unseasonably cool days and too wet in some places and too dry in others has been blamed by a weather bureau expert on the jet streams, the upper air wind patterns above 10,000 feet. One jet stream flows from Alaska and northwest Canada over the Great Lakes region and then toward the Northeast. The other comes in from the Gulf of Mexico, crosses the Southwest, and turns east over Kansas, he said.

The weather expert went on to say the jet streams explain this summer's weather, but when asked about how to explain the jet streams, he said, "We don't know the full answers. They're never normal."

I have thought this over and I believe what he's saying is that he doesn't understand the weather either and that it too is never normal. I get very little satisfaction out of knowing that when I need a rain and it stays dry, the fault lies with a jet stream. This is like always putting the answer one step out of reach.

So far weather experts are like economics experts, they're a lot better at telling you what happened yesterday than what's going to happen tomorrow. You don't find many economics experts getting rich in the stock market or many experts getting rich in farming.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Is this any way to treat your streets?

Keep your home beautiful—keep America beautiful

"You walk and drive—you live on your city's streets. They're part of your home. Why litter your city, your home? Why litter your America? Litter is ugly and unhealthy and dangerous. Cleaning it up costs millions in taxes you help pay. Every litter bit hurts you.

Litter doesn't throw itself away; litter doesn't just happen. People cause it—and only people can prevent it. "People" means you. Keep America Beautiful.
